I will agree to give a purse of $10,000 in addition to the amount I have previously put up against their joint appearance money. My reason for this offer is that I would like to see a good fight between these two kingpins and have the matter settled once for all. They can agree to split the money up only on one basis if my money proposition is accepted, viz., 90 per cent. to the winner, 10 per cent. to the Terry McGovern as a referee is the novelty that the Illinois Athletic Club will present at its boxing show next Friday night at Douglas Hall. Through Sam Harris, manager of the "Brooklyn Terror," arrangements have been made for Terry to go to Chicago during the middle of the week. The principals of the main bout of the night, "Kid" Broad and "Young" Mowatt, agreed to have McGovern as arbiter of the contest. McGovern will second his alias Harry Lewis, and his arrest was brother Hugh, who makes his professional debut in the semi-wind-up of the night. Hugh will meet "Dusty" Miller, a Chicago boxer, at 112 pounds. Malachi Hogan, the club's official referee, will step aside in the main event in favor of Terry.

WILL BE DISCUSSED BY LEAGUE OF AMERICAN SPORTSMEN.

Laws for Protection of Came and Fish Will Be Considered at the Indianapolis Meeting.

American Sportsmen will be held in this city next Wednesday, and representative sportsmen from many States will be in attendance. Among the States that are ington, New York, Montana, Wyoming, Arizona, Kansas, Colorado, Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Ohio, Michigan, the District of Columbia, Illinois, Wisconsin and Kentucky. Frank Littleton, head of the Indiana division, says G. O. Shields, of New York, president of the national organization, will respond to the addresses of welcome to be delivered by Mayor Bookwalter and Governor Durbin.

Fish and game laws will be thoroughly considered and discussed, and some of the most noted sportsmen in the country have already sent communications concerning the work of preservation of game and fish in their neighborhoods. These will be read before the meeting. On Wednesday there will be a general discussion of game and fish laws in the various States, the accomplishments and plans of the league. President Shields has offered to bring his stereopticon slides and give an illustrated talk to the delegates. The meeting will close with a banquet Wednesday night, at which some of the most important speeches will be made. Among the important men who will attend are: C. E. Brewster, chief deputy game commissioner of Michigan; C. M. Harris, game and fish commissioner of the State of Colorado; Monroe Wyckoff. Port Townsend. Wash.; J. W. Connor, Kalispell, Mont.; J. M. Daring Escape of a Prisoner from United States Deputy Marshal.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 8 .- A daring escape of a prisoner from a railroad train just outside of this city was reported to-night Schollinberger, in charge of United States Deputy Marshal Edward St. Clair, left Chicago last night over the Baltimore & Ohio Rallroad, en route to Philadelphia. where Schollinberger is wanted on a charge of violating the oleomargarine law. According to the deputy marshal's story, shortly before the train left this city about :30 o'clock to-night, Schollinberger went into the toilet room of the car in which they were traveling. After standing at the door for ten minutes St. Clair's suspicions were aroused, and he opened the door to find the room empty and the window shattered. The train was immediately stopped and St. Clair returned over the tracks to Baltimore and reported the escape to Marshal Farnam. A description of the prisoner was at once sent to all the police stations and a sharp lookout is being kept for him. Schollinberger had jumped his bail bond in Philadelphia, but was rearrested in Chicago. Deputy Marshal St. Clair was sent from Philadelphia to bring him back.

Indians Starving.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., Feb. 8 .- Thomas Buffington, chief of the Cherokee nation, was here to-day consulting Indian Agent Shoenfelt with regard to furnishing food and supplies to starving Cherokee, Indians. In the districts of Tahlequah, Saline, Flint, Going Snake and Delaware many fullbloods have been on starvation rations for the past two months, and in the hills there is great suffering. The dry weather of last year burned the Indians' corn and destroyed their only means of subsistence.
